

Studio News from Lindsay Obermeyer

Greetings!

Can you believe it is already fall? I love October. It means apple cider, pumpkins and of course, Chicago Artists Month. There is so much to see and do!

Work from my Chirurgi and Micro Patterns series will be featured in the exhibition "Voices and Visions: Standing on the Bridge between Health and Disease" at The Art Center Highland Park. It runs October 8 - 29.

Genetic Inheritance is also being featured the 10th anniversary issue of the poetry journal The Healing Muse from the Center of Bioethics and Humanities at Upstate Medical University.

Genetic Inheritance, 2006, knitting and needle felting, 20" x 22" with 84" of cord.

I am very excited to announce the purchase of Red Blood and Scab by the Swedish Arts Council in Sweden, Stockholm. They were part of an exhibit with Art on Armitage at the Supermarket Art Fair earlier this year.

Red Blood, 2007, bead embroidery on vintage linen, 10" diameter
Scab, 2004, bead embroidery on vintage linen, 6" diameter

If you are in the Chicago area October 2nd, stop by YarnCon at the Pulaski Park Fieldhouse. I'll be there with my Enjolive collection of whimsical accessories. Tell me that you received this newsletter and you will receive a 10% off on your purchase. Order through my Etsy shop and writer "newsletter" in the notes section to receive the same discount through October 6th.

All the best,
Lindsay Obermeyer
